L'Alpe d'Huez (1860m d'altitude) est une station de sports d'hiver des Alpes située sur les anciens alpages du village d'Huez dans le département de l'Isère à 60 km de Grenoble. Cette station fait partie du massif des Grandes Rousses au-dessus du massif de l'Oisans. L'Alpe d'Huez fait partie d'un des plus grands domaines skiables français. La station de 10 000 hectares dont 800 skiables se compose de 250km de pistes, au bonheur des skieurs. Enfin, L'Alpe d'Huez est également très prisée par les passionnés de cyclisme en été.

The Alpe of Huez is 1,860 meters high. It is a winter sports station located on the old mountain pasture of Alpe d'Huez's villages, in the Isère French side. 60 km away from Grenoble. This ski resort belongs to the Grandes Rousses Mountains, above the Oisans. The Alpe of Huez is without a doubt, one of the best ski areas in France with its 10 000 hectares (of which 800 are open for the public) and its 250 kms of ski trail !, All this beauty for the ski passionate. The Alpe of Huez is highly valued by the racing cyclist in the Summer
