Candidates for the Nuclea Board

The Annual General Meeting of the members of the Royal Nuclea npo will take place on 5 December 2017. During this meeting the mandates for the Board for the forthcoming year will be fixed.

According to the Statute, the Board comprises a maximum of 7 mandates. A mandate is valid for 2 years. Two thirds of these mandates are reserved for effective members.

At the moment there is 1 vacant mandate. In addition, during the course of this year 5 further mandates will come to an end. In effect this means that 6 mandates will become vacant on 5 December 2017.

Who is eligible to place his/her candidature?

- An effective member of the npo may place his/her candidature immediately.
- All other members can only be proposed by the board of the relevant section to which he/she belongs. Each section may propose a maximum of 1 candidate.

Perhaps you are just the person to work in our dynamic organization.

Please send your candidature by 27 November 2017 before 17:00 hrs at the latest by way of a registered letter or e-mail to: info@nuclea.be.

Please mention your name and membership number together the name of the affiliated company in which you work or worked.

For external members please send a document from the relevant section proposing your candidature.
